- MBOP Daily Detailed Schedule

- Mr Dawson showed the parents on the overhead how to get to this on BRHSBands.org under the calendar tab

- Upcoming Fundraisers

- Fruit Sale - will run through 12/12. Students will download an app and send requests to the contacts they choose. Hopefully they will share it with at least 20 people. Parents need to make sure that the contacts for people that might buy are in the students contact list. This fundraiser will be student specific. Whatever the student raises will go into their CHARMS account.
- Peppermint Bark - 1 lb $20 and ½ lb $10. There will be a preorder form. This will be a general fundraiser for the band program. Will run the first couple weeks in December.
- Shoe Collection - possible for the month of January. Suzanne is waiting to get answers to some questions about shipping. We will collect adult/kids sensible shoes (no flip flops) and will be paid on the weight of the shoes. They are then sent to developing countries to help start businesses.

- FB Page for Jazz/Concert Parents (Braden River Jazz/Concert Bands)

- New FB page has been created specifically for Jazz/Concert. Please request to join it if your student is in either of these bands.

- Winterguard Budget

- Budget had been emailed to parents the previous week via Charms and a copy was given the night of the meeting. Suzanne expressed concerns the board had that the budget is really tight this year.

Nobody opposed the budget and it was approved unanimously.

- Open Forum

- Concessions has some items that are about to expire. Charity Wharton has been selling them through the FB page. The soccer team has expressed interest in using those items and having concessions at their games. Charity has asked them to work the concessions and the profits would be split. We all agreed this would be a good way to make a little money on the expiring items. Charity will get more information to Suzanne.
- Suzanne suggested a short survey go out to the home show volunteers to get their opinion on how the day ran. Everyone agreed this would be a good idea and she will proceed with the survey.
